

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Are reservations required?

A. We are currently testing a hybrid model of doing business. Open seating, no reservations on Friday and Saturdays and reserved seating only on Sundays. This model may change so we highly encourage visiting our website anytime you are planning a visit to see the current information.

Q. If I choose to visit on a Friday or a Saturday how long will my wait for a table be?

A. While we can provide no guarantees in most cases, we do not expect waits to exceed half an hour. Visiting early on your day of choice is always suggested as we tend to be busier later in the day.

Q. Can I make a reservation over the phone ?

A. No. Reservations are only received here on our website.

Q. I plan to visit later in the season. When will reservation space be available for later summer and fall dates?

A. We currently provide reservation space just 2/3 weeks in advance so if your date of interest is further away than that, please check the website when your date nears.

Q. I heard you offer an ala carte menu dining option. Can some of our party enjoy the buffet and others dine off a menu ?

A. The buffet dining option is ONLY available inside and the menu dining option is ONLY available outside so dining together would not be possible.

Q. Do I need to make a reservation for the outdoor menu dining option?

A. Reservations for our lakeside menu are only required during show times. See the lakeside section of the website for hours and show information and to place your reservation if choosing to visit during one of our shows.

Q. If the weather is bad, how soon will I know if a show is cancelled?

A. An email notification will be sent no less than 1 hour prior to showtime in the event of weather cancellation.
